Introduction and Overview

VMC serves as a clearinghouse to recruit and refer volunteers to hundreds of not-for-profit organizations in the northern New Jersey area. VMC is committed to helping young people find suitable volunteer work and to developing and managing opportunities for youth in partnership with local agencies.

Agencies in this directory have a proven track record of utilizing young volunteers or have expressed an interest in beginning to work with them.

It is VMC's intent that the directory will help young volunteers find appropriate volunteer opportunities in their communities. Our young volunteers are tomorrow's leaders.

If you need any further assistance, we encourage you to contact our office at 973 538-7200 x19 or visit us at vmcnj.org.

How, Where, and Why Workshop

AN INTRODUCTION TO COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION

High school volunteering recently reached the highest levels within the past 50 years. The benefits of young people volunteering are numerous. Once they have experienced a “taste” of volunteerism, they are twice as likely to volunteer as adults. This workshop is designed to introduce students to volunteerism.

Topics include:

- Introduction to volunteerism
- Benefits and responsibilities of volunteers
- Guidelines to consider commitment
- “Do’s and Don’ts” of successful volunteering
- Value of youth volunteers — “How Youth Can Make A Difference!”

For more information or to request a workshop at your school or youth group, contact Nancy Hults-Rubin, 973-538-7200 x13 or email nhults-rubin@vmcnj.org.

Getting Started

So you want to be a volunteer...

What is a volunteer anyway? Someone who does something for FREE? Yes, but there's a little more to it than that. According to Webster, a volunteer is "one who serves or acts of his or her own free will." A volunteer is one who helps others and makes the world a better place - someone who cares.

Some volunteers deliver flowers to hospital patients. Others help young children learn their ABC's. Volunteers bake cookies, walk dogs, make people laugh, pick up trash, paint houses and answer telephones.

The possibilities are endless, where do you begin? Start by asking yourself the following questions:

- How much time do I have to commit?
- What interests or hobbies do I have?
- What do I want to get out of my involvement?
- What type of service will I enjoy?
- What community or neighborhood problems concern me?
- Does volunteering for one of these groups fit my own interests?
- Do I want to work alone or in a group of friends?

Once you have the answers, you'll be on your way to finding a great volunteer position.
